

Fig. 2. Female patient at the age of 9 1/6 years, presenting several characteristic facial features including hypertelorism, downslanting palpebral fissures, a long, pear shaped nose, low-set, posteriorly rotated ears, and a full lower lip. The extremities show a bilateral sandal gap and flat feet.